INTRODUCTION

To the Reader

This book will help you read and understand some of the stories from the Old Testament. These stories are taken from a book that is sacred. As you read these stories, remember they are about real people who lived long ago.

Read the stories over and over until you know them well. You will also want to read them from the Bible. Under each picture you will see where you can find that story in the Bible. Have your father, mother, teacher, or friend help you.

If you do not know a word, look it up in “Words to Know” at the back of the book. If you do not know a person or place, look it up in “People to Know” or “Places to Know” at the back of the book.

To Parents and Teachers

This book will help you teach the scriptures. The “Words to Know,” “People to Know,” and “Places to Know” sections and the maps will help you teach the meanings of words in this book and the identity of Old Testament people and places.

As you teach, share your testimony of the Bible. Encourage those whom you teach to seek prayerfully their own testimonies. Their understanding will grow when you read to them their favorite stories from the Bible itself.

If you are using this volume to teach the handicapped, you may be encouraged by the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith: “All the minds and spirits that God ever sent into the world are susceptible of enlargement” (Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith, sel. by Joseph Fielding Smith [Salt Lake City: Deseret Book Company, 1938] p. 354).

BEFORE THE OLD TESTAMENT

CHAPTER 1

God lives in heaven. He is our Heavenly Father. We lived in heaven with him. We lived with him a long time. He taught us many things.

Matthew 6:9; D&C 93:29;

In heaven we did not have flesh-and-blood bodies. We had spirit bodies. Our spirit bodies looked like the flesh and blood bodies we have now. We were the spirit children of God.

Hebrews 12:9; D&C 77:2; Abraham 3:22

One day Heavenly Father talked to all his children. He said he would make an earth for us. He said we could go to earth. He said we must go to get flesh and blood bodies.

Abraham 3:23-24; Hebrews 2:14

God said we would be tested on earth. We should obey his commandments. But God would not make us obey him. We could choose. We would come back to heaven and live with God if we obeyed him.

Abraham 3:26; D&C 29:36-39

God chose some spirits to help him on earth. They were righteous. He knew they would obey his commandments. They would be prophets and leaders.

Abraham 3:23

God said one of his sons would save the people on the earth. He would go to earth and die for all of us. God's son, Jesus Christ, said he would go to earth and die for us. He would obey God.

Alma 22:13; Abraham 3:27; Moses 4:2

Then another son spoke. His name was Lucifer. He said he would go to earth. But he wanted God's power. God chose Jesus Christ. Lucifer was angry.

Moses 4:1; D&C 29:36; Abraham 3:28

Lucifer talked to God's children. He wanted us to obey him. He said he would make us be good. We could not choose. He would bring us all back to heaven.

Moses 4:1, 3

Many spirits followed Lucifer. Lucifer and these spirits did not obey God.

D&C 29:36-37

God was very sad. He sent Lucifer and the spirits who followed Lucifer out of heaven. They could not have flesh-and-blood bodies. They could not go back to heaven. Lucifer would lead them. His name would be Satan or the devil.

D&C 76:25-27; D&C 29:37; Revelation 12:9

CHAPTER 3

Adam and Eve lived in the Garden of Eden. God and Jesus came and talked to them. There were many trees in the garden. God said Adam and Eve could eat fruit from all the trees but one.

Genesis 3:8; 2:16-17

It was the tree of good and evil. If they ate fruit from that tree, they would know what was good and what was bad. They would have to leave the Garden of Eden. If they did not eat it, they could always stay in the Garden of Eden. God said they could choose.

JOB

CHAPTER 46

Job was a very good man. He always did what was right. He obeyed God's commandments. Job was also a rich man. He had many animals and servants. He had a wife and ten children. God had given him many blessings.

Job 1:1-3

God knew Job was a righteous man. Satan also knew Job was righteous. Satan said Job was righteous because God had given him so many blessings. Satan said Job would not be righteous if his blessings were taken away.

Job 1:6-11

God said Satan could take away everything Job had. But Satan could not hurt Job. Then Satan would see that Job would still be righteous.

Job 1:12

One day four servants came to Job. They said all of Job's oxen and servants had been killed. They said a fire had burned all his sheep. They said his camels had been stolen.

Job 1:14-17

They said a strong wind blew down Job's son's house. All Job's children were killed. Job had nothing left.

Job 1:18-19

Job was very sad. But he was not angry at God. He fell to the ground and worshiped God. He said he had nothing when he was born. God gave him everything. Now God had taken it away. Job still loved God.

Job 1:20-22

God talked to Satan again. He said everything had been taken from Job. And Job was still righteous. But Satan said Job would not be righteous if he were very sick. So God said Satan could make Job sick. But Satan could not kill him.

Job 2:1-6

Job became very sick. His body was covered with sores. He wished he had not been born. Job's wife asked if he still believed God was good. Job said he did. Job said God gave people good things. God sometimes let bad things happen to them. Sometimes bad things happened to good people.

Job 2:7, 9-10; 3:1-13

Three of Job's friends came to see him. They were sorry for him. They told Job God punishes wicked people. They said God does not punish good people. The friends said Job must have been wicked. Bad things would not happen to him if he were righteous.

Job 2:11-13; 3-19

Job told his friends they were not helping him. He said he had not been wicked. He did not know why so many bad things had happened to him. Job still believed in God. Job said he might die. But he would always love God. If he did die, he would be resurrected. He would have his body again. He would see God.

Job 4-19

Again Job's friends told him he had been wicked. They said he may have taken things away from poor people. Or he may not have helped people when they needed help. They said God knows when people are wicked. No one can hide his sins from God. They told Job to repent. Then God would bless him.

Job 22

Job told his friends he was righteous. He said God knew he was not wicked. Job said some wicked people do not have troubles. And sometimes righteous people have many troubles. Job said he did not know why God had let bad things happen to him.

Job 26-28

Then Job heard the voice of God. God asked Job many questions. Where was Job when God made the world? What did Job know about the clouds, the snow, and the rain? What did Job know about the animals and the plants on the earth? God made these wonderful things.

Job 38, 39, 40:1

Job answered God. Job said he did not understand these things. God told Job men cannot always understand why God does things. Men must trust God no matter what happens to them.

Then Job saw God. Job had been righteous through all his troubles. Job loved God. He trusted God.

Job 40-42:6

God told Job's friends he was angry at them. The things they told Job were not right. God told them to bring animals for a sacrifice. Job prayed for his friends.

Job 42:7-10

God blessed Job. He gave Job more than he had before. God gave him more animals. Job and his wife had more children. They were happy. Job lived to be a very old man. He was very righteous.

Job 42:10-17

THE PROPHETS TELL ABOUT JESUS

CHAPTER 47

Many of the people were not like Job. They were wicked. They did not obey God's commandments. They did not listen to his prophets.

Many prophets told the people to repent. They told the people that Jesus Christ would come to earth. He would be the Savior. He would die to save all the people on the earth.

1 Nephi 1:18-20

Some of the prophets who told about Jesus Christ were Moses, Jeremiah, Micah, Zechariah, Lehi, and Isaiah. The prophets said Jesus Christ would be born in Bethlehem. Jesus would grow up as other children do. People would not know he was the Son of God.

Jacob 7:11; Isaiah 7:14-15; 9:6; Micah 5:2

God would send a prophet to help Jesus. His name would be John. He would teach the people about Jesus. He would baptize Jesus. He would be called John the Baptist.

Isaiah 40:3; John 1:6; Matt. 3:1

Jesus would love everyone. He would do many miracles. He would teach men about God. He would show men how to be like Heavenly Father. He would suffer for their sins.

Isaiah 53:11-12; 61:1; Jeremiah 33:14-16

Some people would not believe in Jesus. They would hate him. They would crucify him on a cross. He would die and then be resurrected. The things the prophets said about Jesus did happen. The New Testament tells about the life of Jesus Christ.

Moses 7:55-56; Zechariah 13:6; Isaiah 53:5

AFTER THE OLD TESTAMENT

CHAPTER 48

The Old Testament prophets died. Four hundred years went by. Most of the Jews did not obey God.

Armies from other lands captured the Jews. Wicked kings from other lands made them slaves. The kings killed thousands of them.

The kings would not let the Jews make sacrifices to God. They took the things made of gold from the temple. The kings worshiped idols in the temple.

The last army to capture the Jews was the Roman army. The Romans broke down the walls of Jerusalem. They captured the city. They sent a man named Herod to be the king of the Jews.

Herod wanted the Jews to like him. So he made the temple beautiful again. He had thousands of men work on it. They put gold and silver back into the temple. When it was finished it was very beautiful. But the Jews still did not like Herod.

Herod was very wicked. He killed many people. He killed his wife and two sons. He tried to kill the baby Jesus.

The Jews did not want Herod to be their king. They did not want the Romans to be their leaders. The Jews were waiting for the Savior to come. They thought he would help them fight the Romans. They thought the Savior would be their king.
